

April 30, 2013

We are pleased to announce that we will be posting, as time permits, many of the Collected Stories of Andrew Peeples, brother to the Bluffton composer, Luke Peeples. Over the years, most of the stories first appeared in local newspapers as part of Andrew's Bluffton Boy series, and were later collected in book form under the title Bluffton Boy and published in 1979. Andrew's daughter, Mildred Peeples Pemberton, has graciously given us permission to present the digital versions of her father's stories here on graveshouse.org. Please return regularly to view our most recent postings.

Andrew and Luke Peeples' mother, Maud Guilford Peeples, and my father, John Samuel Graves, Jr.'s mother, Cora Jane Guilford Graves, were sisters. Both women were daughters of George Sewell Guilford (builder of the Graves House) and Jane Hore Guilford. Please visit our history tab for some of the story of the Guilfords and the Graves House.

John S. Graves, III